The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Noise Level May Drop

The peace and quiet associated with suburban areas is mostly illusory.

Why else would the County Board of Supervisors be forced to enact an anti-noise ordinance? It is scheduled to approved this week if the enforcement bugs can be ironed out.

The ordinance has been a long time in coming — probably because some of the supervisors live in cities. Cities have laws against any noise that's loud enough to disturb neighbors. Now there is one for the county. And it takes into account the heaviest residential development comes to suburban areas.

New homeowners inevitably break out hammers and saws on week-ends and add little niceties to their newly acquired castles — niceties left out by builders caught in a labor-cost squeeze.

Noise from such activity, and noise from the ever-present power mower is forgiven— after a fashion. Power tools and mowers may be used between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Sundays and holidays.

The new law demands quiet from practically everybody between 10 p.m. and 8 a.m. Those who are caught breaking the law will be subject to a fine of up to $500 or six months in jail or both.

Some of the noises that are scheduled to be diminished are loud radios, televisions, auto horns and barking dogs.

One of the most troublesome noises to suppress will be motorcycles. By the time a complaint is registered, the bike usually has moved on to another area.

Earlier this week a cyclist, failing to respect a stop sign on Palm st. in Lemon Grove, was pursued by a California Highway Patrol officer in a patrol car.

The cyclist turned into a bumpy, open field as he neared Sweetwater. CHP stopped, scratched his head a moment, then zipped down Sweetwater turning south in an attempt to catch his prey at the other end of the field. The young cyclist simply reversed his direction, headed back to Palm where he went merrily on his way while CHP was waiting for a break in the traffic to double back in pursuit.

But motorcycle noise is real and very bothersome in otherwise quiet neighborhoods and should be stopped. Both CHP and the Sheriff's Department have handled the most flagrant incidents.

They will continue to handle both motorcycle and auto excessive noises.

Although the new ordinance becomes effective in mid-October, the staff for handling complaints has neither been named nor funded. County Health Director Dr. J. B. Askew estimates the cost the first year will exceed $80,000.

Since the ordinance is designed for the county, noise-disturbed residents will call the Sheriff's office — 236-2902. The Sheriff will work with county noise-control officers who will take noise-level readings. If the noise is "unnecessary, excessive or offensive", a citation will be issued.

The construction industry will have to change its schedules to conform with the anti-noise ordinance. Construction will be prohibited before 7 a.m. or after 7 p.m. on any site daily and all day Sundays and holidays.

A question that will arise the first day of the new law will certainly be that of the San Diego & Arizona Eastern Railroad that bisects Lemon Grove. SD&AE engineers are notoriously heavy-handed on the train's horn. Recently installed automatic crossing guards at the Broadway intersection didn't seem to diminish the train's horn blowing.

It wouldn't be hard to measure the noise level. If it hurts the community's ears it's too loud.

It usually hurts the community's ears.

That recalls an editorial campaign waged by this publication more than 10 years ago because the engineers of SD&AE pulled the horn cord from the Palm st. crossing until it passed the one at North ave.— a distance of about seven blocks. Editorially, we demanded that an election be held requiring the railroad to put its thoroughfare underground to reduce noise and traffic hazards.

One day, during that period, three burly, middle-aged gents entered the publication's office demanding to see the editor. The visitors looked like labor goons rather than railroad vice-presidents. They had been sent here by Southern Pacific, owner of SD&AE, to see if the editor couldn't be induced to cool it. He could. All they had to do was to instruct their engineers to reduce the horn-blowing. They agreed to that.

For about four months following, each of the seven grade crossings in the commercial section of Lemon Grove were crossed with only a single, short "honk" from the engineer. Not a traffic incident occurred during this period.

Later, the horn-happy engineers returned to their old ways just as if they were getting a bonus in line with the number of townspeople their noise disturbed.

It is probable that this publication will register the first anti-noise complaint the day the ordinance becomes effective. It will be against the engineer who is hanging on the train-horn cord of the SD&AE engine as it drags through Lemon Grove.

It is the wish of this publication that your anti-noise complaints will be more productive than ours has.

Lions 'White Cane' Days Set for October 4th-5th

The Lemon Grove Lions club's annual White Cane project will be October 4-5 this year, Gary Sweet, Cane chairman said this week.

All local Lions members will circulate through banks, markets, centers and business firms to ask aid for youngsters with faulty eyesight.

Those who donate will be given a miniature white cane which can be worn on the lapel.

Last year the group raised approximately $2,000 which is used to examine youngsters with faulty vision.

Each year the club sponsors a screening program for youngsters in kindergarten and first grades. Parents are charged $1 for the examination. Youngsters who are visually handicapped are referred to one of the Lions "eye rooms" such as the one the club underwrote at Grossmont hospital.

Lions club county-wide sponsor similar events at the same time.

Annex, Incorporate or Status Quo

Grove Feasibility Study OK'd

There was no tension in the air as there has been when other meetings were held on the future of Lemon Grove.

Supervisor Dick Brown laid it out straight to the 60 persons who came to the Lemon Grove Junior High School Thursday night to hear him discuss the various forms of government available to the community.

A two-prong thrust concerned lessening of county services and the growing tax cost.

The offered the good offices of county government to make a "feasibility study' 'so that citizens could decide if they wanted to incorporate, annex to the City of La Mesa, annex to the City of San Diego or stay as they are. The study would cost local residents nothing and the decision of annexation, incorporation or to do nothing was up to the local residents alone, Brown told them.

Only three people voiced dissent for the study claiming they wanted "no change".

"The study commits no one to any change," Brown told them. "But you should find out whether a change would have advantages or not."

Tax Rates Compared

There is something to be said for annexation or incorporation, Brown said. "The average tax rate in Lemon Grove will be $11.09 for each $100 assessed valuation in your 1974-1975 tax bill you will get in October. La Mesa's total tax is $10.86 and San Diego's is $9.83 with both cities giving better services than Lemon Grove is now getting," he noted.

"Your taxes are going to be continually higher," he said. "Your services will decline. As County Supervisors we spend a million dollars every day. We've grown into big business —too big to use time on $100 items such as city councils do in smaller communities."

He admitted that some of the "remote government" problems that Lemon Grove has now would continue as part of San Diego. "Instead of going to Pacific Coast Highway you'd go downtown."

The study, officially called an "Economic Base Study" would point the way. "It is conceivable that it would indicate status quo," he admitted. "We are not here to make a recommendation. We are here only to determine whether the community wants a study made."

He reminded that a desire to annex to La Mesa would have to be approved by La Mesa voters. "Any annexing entity that has 50% of the population of the area to which it would annex, must be approved by the voters of each community, he said.

Small Industrial Areas

One of the objections to the incorporation of Lemon Grove has been the small amount of industrial and commercial area to produce a better tax base. "The highest tax rates are in unincorporated areas receiving inferior services," Brown noted. "That's why there is less industrial development in such areas. Conversely, industrial development, say a three million dollar development, needs few government services. Three million dollars worth of three bedroom homes need many services. Economic strength of cities is going up while level in the county is going down. Services in the county will not improve. Taxes will continue to rise. That's why commercial and industrial developments are choosing cities.

The feasibility study will cost the county about six thousand dollars, Brown said.

Charlotte Langley, a member of the county management assistance section, will handle the study. She discussed elements of her work at the meeting.

Steps Listed

The steps, she said, would be to get approval of the Board of Supervisors for the study. She would then get figures for the various jurisdictions which would be involved. The sales tax people require three to four months to produce their figures. That information would become the feasibility study. Before any change could be undertaken, a request would have to be approved by the Local Agency Formation Commission. After that, an election could be held if a change is desired.

The Thursday meeting was requested by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce. Sponsorship of the feasibility study was co-sponsored by the Chamber and the Lemon Grove Planning Association.

The L.G. Planning Assn. will distribute information to interested residents. Other meetings will be held by both the planning group and the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce. Chamber of Commerce meetings are open to the public and are held every fourth Thursday at Los Cazadores Restaurant on Broadway. Mailings, however, will be made only to Chamber members, Del Lake, chamber president, said.

There has been no previous election in Lemon Grove on annexation. Incorporation was voted down twice — both by small margins.

SAN DIEGO (CNA)—Alvin Dennis Pacheco, 24, of 850 Sacramento, Spring Valley, who had been charged with smuggling marijuana, was found not guilty by a jury last week.

Police testified that his car, which had been left in a ditch with the lights burning during a police chase, contained a bag of marijuana. Pacheco was found hiding in the underbrush. He said he had driven off the road to avoid hitting what he thought was a man carrying a sack and ran because of fear. The jury accepted the explanation.

Wells declared that a welfare investigator found Fetty asleep on a couch in the family residence. He said neighbors of the Fettys confirmed that the couple had never been separated.

Smooth Tires Brings Charge For Marijuana

Sheriff's deputies stopped an auto driven by James Frederick Barker, 18, of 2569 Hardy st., Lemon Grove Friday night because of a license plate deficiency and smooth tires.

With Barker were two other passengers and the aroma of burning marijuana.

The passengers were released because there was no evidence that they had been in possession or involved in the "smoke-out".

In the car under the passenger's seat police found 22 grams of marijuana.

Barker will be arraigned in El Cajon Municipal Court this week.

Dr. Parkinson Case Continued

Dr. Gaylord Parkinson, 56, of 10260 Fuerte dr., La Mesa, was granted a continuance Monday in San Diego Municipal Court on a charge of felony sex perversion.

Parkinson, former state Republican chairman and member of the county Planning Commission, was one of three suspects who appeared for arraignment. His arraignment has been set for September 26.

About 40 persons were taken into custody earlier last week by police for probable cause in connection with misdemeanor complaints on sex charges stemming from police surveillance of a rest room at the May Co. department store in Mission Valley. These cases were referred to the City Attorney's office which filed misdemeanor complaints against 16 persons. They are scheduled to be arraigned.

Parkinson's attorney, Harvey B. Tyndall, said he was making a special appearance in that he will not be counsel in the case.

Chamber to Eye L.G.'s Future

The regular monthly meeting of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday, September 26, at noon at Los Cazadores restaurant at 7836 Broadway.

One of the subjects to be discussed will be the feasibility study now under way by elements of the County of San Diego. The study is an approach to the future of the community. It will carry facts and figures to help citizens decide whether the proper step would be incorporation, annexation to San Diego or La Mesa, or to stay as a part of the unincorporated area of San Diego County.

Del Lake will preside.

Encounter Groups Fill Social Need

During the past ten years, the encounter group has become a popular, widespread activity. It is not to be viewed as a method of treatment for mental or emotional illness, but for many persons it meets a psychological and social need.

The purpose of the encounter group is to enable people to experience personal growth and development by learning to express their feelings openly. It is generally believed that our society places so much emphasis on self-discipline and rationality that we tend to suppress our inner feelings. The more fully we understand ourselves, emotionally as well as intellectually, the more we get out of our life experiences — especially our relationships with other people.

How an encounter group puts a person in touch with his feelings may take a variety of forms. Some achieve it by talking under the guidance of a group leader. Some rely on action — on touching, for example, or other forms of giving contact and comfort. Some use role-playing, in which an individual's problems are play-acted to cast a new light on them. In some groups the members try to be supportive of each other. In others, there are open confrontations which may be quite aggressive. Some groups meet once a week, some on weekends, and some (marathons) run non-stop for 30 or 40 hours.

The California Medical Assn. suggests that before you join an encounter group, you would do well to talk with others who have worked with the leader of that specific group so you can make an informed decision.

Chemists, 'Speckie' Make Water Better

LONG GROVE, Ill.—Chemists at a major insurance company are working with colored fluids and "Speckie" to make water better for everyone.

They use shades and hues of every color in the spectrum for colorimetric testing procedures used to determine the presence of trace impurities in water.

The colors result when precisely measured quantities of chemicals are added to the water and react with impurities. The resulting color, and its intensity, indicate what impurity is present and in what volume.

Oxidation reduction reactions, chemical oxygen demand tests and spectrophometric procedures are all in a day's work for experts at National Loss Control Service Corporation (NATLSCO) in Long Grove, Ill. NATLSCO is a subsidiary of Kemper Corporation, one of the Kemper Insurance and Financial Companies.

And "Speckie?"

Speckie is the nickname for the lab's double beam spectrophotometer; a sophisticated piece of hardware that can be used for determining concentrations of various substances in water by measuring specific wave lengths of light.

"Some of our equipment can detect the presence of materias in water in quantities as small as one part per billion," Gerald L. Maatman, NATLSCO president said.

"With the increased ecological concern being shown by private citizens and virtually all segments of government and industry," Maatman said, "It's natural for us to apply our world recognized expertise, objectivity and know-how, to monitoring and detecting harmful foreign substances in water."

Tay Sachs Disease Clinics Hold Tests

How the tragedy of Tay-Sachs Disease can be prevented and what families can do now to protect themselves will be the chief purposes of free prevention-testing clinics, scheduled for four locations in October.

Heading the five-day program committee will be Mrs. Alfred Jalowayski and Mrs. C. H. Schwartz, representatives of the council of Jewish Women's Organizations in San Diego.

Co-sponsoring the clinics will be the San Diego-Imperial Chapter of the March of Dimes and the San Diego Regional Center for the Developmentally Disabled.

The prevention-testing schedule includes the Jewish Community Center, 54th and University, October 13 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and the 17th, 5 to 9 p.m.; Mission Valley's May Company October 14; noon to 9 p.m., United Church, Governor drive, October 20, 1 to 5 p.m., and the Beth Israel Synagogue October 27, 8:45 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"Tay-Sachs Disease is not widely known and afflicts the Jewish population," said Mrs. Schwartz. "It is an inherited genetic disorder causing destruction of the nervous system in small children.

"Once the disease strikes, usually at the age of six months, the child begins to lose all of his physical skills and eventually is unable to eat."

Mrs. Jalowayski said, "The importance of these clinics is for couples to find out if they are carriers. Even couples with healthy children must be tested since if both parents are carriers there exists a 25 per cent risk in subsequent pregnancies of having a child with Tay-Sachs Disease."

Drug Refund Aid Offered By W. Deddeh

Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh reminded his constituents that they received in the mail recently forms asking how much they had spent on certain prescription drugs and giving a list of multi-syllable drug names.

"Anyone who did not read the form carefully," Deddeh said, "and threw it away thinking it was an ad or sales gimmick may have overlooked an opportunity to get up to $50 free."

The forms were the result of a suit against five major drug companies for overcharging consumers during 1954-1966 for specific antibiotics, Deddeh reported.

As a result of an out-of court settlement the companies agreed to put $20 million in the State Treasury to be used to refund prescription drugs purchasers.

"Because purchasers' records are rarely maintained over a twenty-year period the Attorney General is not requiring any proof of people who claim less than a $150 spent on the drugs listed," Deddeh said.

A certain percentage based upon the amount of drugs purchased will be returned to consumers who file claims. The amount an individual gets back will depend on the number of claims filed, but the Attorney General's office believes the maximum refunds on claims could run as high as $50.

The deadline for filing, Deddeh reminded his constituents, is October 31.

"People who no longer have their forms can get extra copies at my district office, 815 3rd. ave. in Chula Vista," Deddeh said, "or any post office."

Insurance coverage is no bar to a claim and the refund is non-taxable unless the person had the benefit of a tax deduction in earlier years for the cost of drugs.

Some Students Eligible for Free Meals, Milk

Youngsters of the Lemon Grove School District; The La Mesa-Spring Valley and the Grossmont Union High School Districts who cannot pay the full cost for school meals can get them at reduced prices.

The National School Lunch and Special Milk Program sets criteria.

For free meals, family size and monthly gross income should be as follows:

1 — $1 to $242; 2 — $0 to $319; 3 — $0 to $395; 4 — $0 to $470; 5 — $0 to $540; 6 — $0 to $609; 7 — $0 to $672; 8 — $0 to $734; Qualifications for reduced meals according to family size and monthly gross income are:

1 — $243 to $340; 2 — $320 to $446; 3 — $396 to $553; 4 — $471 to $658; 5 — $541 to $755; 6 — $610 to $853; 6 — $610 to $853; 7 — $673 to $941; 8 — $735 to $1028.

In addition, families not meeting this criteria but with other unusual expenses due to unusually high medical expenses, shelter costs in excess of 30 percent of income, special education expenses due to the mental or physical condition of a child, and disaster or casualty losses are urged to apply.

They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year.

In certain cases foster children are also eligible for these benefits. If a family has such children living with them and wishes to apply for such meals or milk for them they should contact the school.

If You Believe You've Been Cheated..

A series of consumer protection advisories have been prepared by the California Trial Lawyers Association to warn consumers of some of the hazards of signing a contract. The following article is one of several that will be published in these columns for several weeks.

Consumers are urged to write CTLA for their Consumer Protection pamphlet which tells "How Not to Be Cheated and Who to Contact If You Are."

The address is at the end of this week's column.

Swimming Pool Contracts

The last few years have seen a rapid increase in the number of swimming pools being constructed in the yards of homeowners. Here are several tips, which if followed, should decrease the likelihood of problems with your builder.

Make sure that the contract is signed by an authorized agent of the company as well as yourself. The law says you are entitled to a copy of this contract at the time you and the company representative sign it. And, be sure your copy is legible. Do not accept an illegible carbon copy.

Be sure that there is a specific date of completion in the contract. If this date is part of the pre-printed form contract, and the salesman tells you that he will "guarantee" that the pool will be finished in a shorter time, make him put the "guaranteed" date into the contract.

The law requires that as part of the contract which you receive, a plan and scale drawing showing shape, size, pool dimensions, and construction and equipment specifications, among other things, must be furnished by the company. Notice that this must be part of the contract, and as stated above, the contract copy must be given to you at the time you sign it.

Get Drawing

Obviously, therefore, you should also get the plan and scale drawing at the time you sign the contract, not a week or two later.

If you run into problems because the company did not follow the procedures described above, you may be able to void the contract.

If you obtain the services of an attorney and you win your lawsuit, the company must pay you a reasonable fee for your attorney, as well as all court costs.

(To obtain a copy of the CTLA Consumer Protection pamphlet, designed to acquaint you with your rights in the law, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to CTLA, 1020 12th st., Sacramento 95814. Please specify whether you want it in English or Spanish).

This Week's RECIPE

Chinese-Style Casserole Provides Flavor Twist

East meets West in the Shanghai Casserole — an easy-do meal in one dish with a touch of Oriental wisdom, spice and rice.

NEW YORK (ED) — The casserole has long been a favorite of American cooks who love the efficiency of a tasty one-dish dinner. And to the entire family's delight, today's casserole isn't necessarily composed of leftovers. With just a little help from the pantry shelf and frozen food compartment, you can add spark by giving this utilitarian dish an Oriental twist.

The secret: Rice. This nutritious grain has been a food staple of the Chinese for ages, and because it's so economical, wise American cooks are finding new ways to vary their cooking with rice.

Shanghai Casserole combines the best of the Western tradition of easy preparation and cleanup with the Oriental ideal of good taste and nutrition on a modest budget. Serve with chopsticks and herbal tea and you'll turn an everyday dinner into a culinary event.

SHANGHAI CASSEROLE

- 1¾ lbs. lean ground beef
- 1 cup chopped onions
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 2 cups sliced celery
- 1 can (10¾ oz.) condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen mixed vegetables, thawed
- 2 cups cooked rice
- 2 Tbsps. soy sauce
- 2 tsps. salt
- ½ tsp. pepper
- 1 can (3 oz.) Chinese noodles

In large skillet, lightly greased, cook meat, onions and garlic until meat is no longer pink. Pour off fat, if any. Add celery, soup, and mixed vegetables. Stir in rice and seasonings. Turn into a greased 2½-quart casserole. Cover and bake at 350° for 25 minutes. Remove cover and top with noodles. Return to oven for 5 minutes. Makes 6-8 servings.

Aztecs and Tampa Meet in S.D. Opener

One of college football's most overlooked backfields will be on display in San Diego Stadium Saturday when the U. of Tampa takes on San Diego State U. at 7:30 p.m. in the 1974 home opener for the Aztecs.

Tampa comes into the game boasting one of the top backfields in college football and one of the fastest. Quarterback Fred Solomon, who has run a 4.3 40-yard dash, is the leader of the Spartan backfield. Solomon has rushed for 166 yards on 24 carries so far this season in two games for an average per carry of 6.9. Last year Solomon rushed for 882 yards on 149 carries. In his four year college career to date Solomon has gained 2165 yards rushing and passed for 1726 more.

Last week in Tampa's 47-13 victory over Toledo, Solomon rushed for 146 yards on 15 carries, and three touchdowns.

Solomon, however, is not the leading Spartan ballcarrier. Morris LaGrand has gained 233 yards on 24 carries this season for an average of 9.7 per rush. Against Toledo he gained 120 yards on 12 carries and scored three times. He had a 60 yard run for a score against Toledo and broke one two weeks ago against Chattanooga for 71 yards. LaGrand runs a 4.6 40.

The third back in Tampa's attack is Andy Kuchmaner. Kuchmaner was tried as a defensive back in the spring, but has proved he can run with the ball. In two games this season he has gained 152 yards on 19 carries for an average of 8.0. Against Toledo he gained 110 yards on nine carries.

San Diego State comes into the game with Tampa with an 0-1 mark after losing a hard fought 17-10 contest to 17th rated University of Arizona last week in Tucson.

The Aztecs had several chances to win or tie the game, but let them slip away. Frank Geary sparked the offense with 100 yards rushing on 17 carries. Wide receiver Dwight McDonald had a fine game making nine catches for 122 yards and a score.

Defensively Aztec linebacker Bobby Henderson picked up where he left off last year and showed that he is indeed an All-America candidate, making 12 unassisted tackles, six assists, deflecting a pass, recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass and returning it 18 yards. Henderson was selected as the Pacific Coast Athletic Association Defensive Player of the Week.

Mike Gilbert made nine unassisted tackles and had five assists and Ed Kertel had three unassisted tackles, 13 assists, a deflection and two interceptions.

Flores' Pace Holds At Caliente Track

TIJUANA — Jockey Ramon Flores continues to set the pace at Agua Caliente Racetrack and for the sixth straight weekend won four or more races to move into third place in the riding standings.

Flores won Saturday's feature race aboard Mrs. Airstream and came home first in six races over the weekend to notch his 37th win of the meeting. The lanky Mexican rider has been getting good mounts as of late and making the most of a good situation.

Wilfrido Osuna continues to be the top rider at Caliente and he won three races over the weekend. The veteran Mexican jockey has 48 wins to lead H. K. Wellington (who now rides at Bay Meadows) by five.

A. L. (Tony) Diaz, one of California's top jockeys, rode here over the weekend while enroute to a vacation with his family in Mexico City. All he did was record four wins in eight rides Sunday, including the feature race with Holiday Maker. Diaz began his career at Caliente six years ago.

Trainer Juan Garcia continues to set the pace at Caliente and he added a pair over the weekend to notch 46th win of the meeting. G. M. Sinne is next on the list with 36 wins and he won three races over the Mexican hoidays.

Saturday's feature event at Agua Caiente is for 3-year-olds and upward, the Guaymas Purse, at 6 furlongs. The Hermosillo, an allowance race for 3-year-olds and up, is set as Sunday's feature at one mile and one-sixteenth.

Caliente's 5-10 reserve jackpot is now $45,742 since there was not a lone ticket winner of the handicapping contest over the weekend.

Mesa-City College Renew Grid Battle

For the gridders of both Mesa and San Diego City College, Saturday afternoon's traditional inter-district battle will afford both parties the opportunity to re-group, re-assemble and re-assess after opening game defeats.

The Olympians and SDCC rekindle their yearly battle Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in Balboa Stadium.

For the two rivals, each hoping to rebound after less than splendid debuts, the contest always pulls a little extra fighting juice from the coaching staffs and players alike.

Mesa and city each allowed 34 points in their initial outings, the Olympians lost to El Camino 34-13 while City was bested by Phoenix City College 34-8.

Chargers Face Bengals At Cincinnati Sunday

The San Diego Chargers engage the powerful Cincinnati Bengals at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati Sunday. Kickoff is 10 a.m. (PDT).

Under new coach Tommy Prothro, San Diego lost its 1974 NFL opener to the Houston Oilers, 21-14, at the Astrodome Sunday despite a 411-yard offensive output.

Defending champions of the American Conference Central Division, the Bengals of coach Paul Brown opened with a 33-7 smash over the Cleveland Browns. It was Cincinnati's 14th consecutive home game victory.

The game will be broadcast by Andy Musser and Earl Faison on KSDO (1130) and the Charger network. Al Michaels and Mike Haffner announce the NBC telecast on KGTV-10.

Cincinnati leads the series, 4-3. The Bengals beat the Chargers, 20-13, in San Diego last year. They have not lost to San Diego since 1969.

San Diego fullback Cid Edwards began 1974 in high style with an even 100-yard rushing game against the Houston Oilers. Sunday he will return home to Cincinnati when the Chargers play the Bengals.

"I'm excited about playing at home," said Edwards. "I grew up on the riverbank right near where the stadium is now. My mother and my family will be in the stands Sunday."

Edwards is especially close to his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Edwards, and his five younger brothers and sisters (the oldest 16), who he has helped support.

"You have to know my mother to know how beautiful a lady she is. She's struggled all her life and she's so special. My mother was very strict. She never did allow me to stay out late at night. She sacrificed everything for her kids."

When Cid Edwards, known then as Cleophus or Clete, graduated from Robert A. Taft High School as a Cincinnati all-city fullback in 1961 (playing in the same backfield as Walter Johnson, Carl Ward and Al Nelson, who also went on to the NFL) he enrolled at Tennessee State.

Disappointment

After a year he dropped out, left home and went to Los Angeles. "I had disappointed my mother and I wanted to get out of Cincinnati because the winters are so cold."

For six months he worked for a fiberglass company in L.A., then was drafted into the Army. By this time football was almost forgotten.

"I put it out of my life. I had enjoyed it in college and high school but I thought I had played it for the last time."

But when he was sent to Korea—there he acquired the nickname Big Cid after meeting an unusually tall Korean girl known as Big Cindy—the opportunity to play for the 8th Army Division team presented itself.

Awhile later a Cincinnati sportswriter tipped a St. Louis Cardinal coach about a big fullback who played service ball in Korea. The Cardinals' chief scout pulled out his file on Tennessee State players. No Cid Edwards. The school had no record of a Cid Edwards. Cleophus Edwards, yes, but Cid Edwards, no.

The Cardinal scout then went to Cincinnati and timed Cid, then weighing 237 pounds, at 4.8 for the 40-yard dash. He was signed by St. Louis as a 25-year-old rookie free agent in 1968.

After four good seasons with the Cardinals, Edwards was traded to San Diego in 1972 for Leon Burns. It could well be the best trade in Charger history.

Edwards rusned for 679 yards and caught 40 passes in 1972 to earn the team's most valuable player award. In 1973 he rushed for 609 yards and caught 25 passes. Last Sunday he averaged 6.2 yards a carry for his 100 yards and caught two passes.

There were 21 new players on the Chargers' opening 47-man roster including 14 rookies. Ten of the rookies were 1974 draft choices by the Chargers. The 11th was running back Don Woods, drafted No. 6 by Green Bay. Free agents were starting running back Glen Bonner, defensive end Ray Baylor and linebacker Mike Lee.

The Chargers face the Super Bowl champian Miami Dolphins at San Diego Stadium on Sunday, Sept. 29 at 1 p.m.

Rose Bowl Tickets Drawing Next Month

Now is the time to submit post cards for the only public sale of tickets for the 1975 Rose Bowl Game. A drawing will be conducted in mid-October by the Tournament of Roses Association in cooperation with the participating Big Ten and Pacific-8 football conferences.

Standard-sized post cards — not letters — should be sent to: Rose Bowl, P.O. Bin 1800, Pasadena, Cal. 91109. Each card must be identified by the sender's name and address. Letters will not be accepted.

Cards may be mailed anytime from now until October 15, however, all must be postmarked prior to midnight, October 15.

Shortly after the closing deadline, officials of the Tournament of Roses and the two conferences will conduct the drawing, (for 3,500 seats) at Tournament House in Pasadena, to determine who will have the opportunity of purchasing two tickets to the 61st Annual Rose Bowl Game on January 1.

A total of 1,750 cards will be selected at random and the senders of each post card drawn will be sent a ticket application form. Money should not be sent until this form is received, even though there may be a public announcement of the names drawn. Ticket prices remain $12.50 apiece for the 1975 game.

This will be the only public sale of 1975 Rose Bowl tickets. The balance of the tickets are distributed by the two schools participating in the game.

TAKE FIVE

By John E. Wirges

Now Hear This!

It's time for all the Mamas and Honeys and other house folk to pack it in. Summer has come and went, the kids are back in school and the Dads are all fully-primed for their time.

Soo, hit the supermarkets, Mom. Load up on the cheese and pepperoni, dips and crackers, mixes and juices and don't forget the beer. Especially don't forget the beer.

The sit-in-front-of-the-television-set-and-watch-football season is underway.

Wives, lovers and sweethearts are cautioned that such an important undertaking as this needs certain, well planned, preliminary steps to be completed for the health and well-being of all the principals involved. These steps are vital, but despite their importance they should never be initiated on Saturday or Sunday afternoons, or on Monday evenings.

That is when silence must be maintained, children herded outside and out of eat shot and problems of food prices, kids shoes, school grades and similar mundane troubles left gathering dust in your mental file of tomorrow's deeds.

Sometime between the end of Monday's grid TViewing and the first possible kick off on Saturday, it would be wise to troop the kids in front of Daddy, explain to them who he is and what he stands for in their lives.

Tell each and everyone of the little darlings that Daddy loves them and that they should love him in return, no matter what.

Tell them that Daddy can't help what he will be doing between now and SuperSunday when the Nationals meet the Americans for the SuperCrown.

Would also be a good idea to balance the checkbook, warn tradesmen away for the season, vacuum the rug, restock the medical kit with anti-acid tablets and arrange for the occasional loan of a usable stomach pump.

Sometime along about halfpast Friday make the dip, slice the pepperoni, cut the cheese, chill the beer, open the chips and build a mountain of sandwiches.

Be reminded the kids can have the television on and warming up with Saturday morning cartoons until about 10. Then it's "Katie bar the door."

With a little practice even the most inept Dad will be able to capture two major college games and parts of at least two others before the late afternoon scores flash on the screen. Then, of course, it's time for Saturday night's game then more scores and . . . where the late night movie used to be, a televised replay of a game not shown live that afternoon.

Be ready to move quickly on Sunday morning. You must restock the chips, dip, sausage and sauce, and rush in a new supply of beer, evermindful that taped replays of major college games have replaced televised church services for the season.

And then there's Pro-Play. Usually a double header on one channel and a single header on the other. To save switching back and forth and perhaps miss a play, many grid hounds have installed television sets by the pair in side-by-side attention with separate ear plugs. Play commentary on the left is fed into the port ear, action on the right is piped in on that side.

There is danger to this method. Every year or so you hear about someone suffering from a fatal short-circuit in the vacuum where the two sounds meet.

But you can't stop progress. Better bend with the will of the herd. Just make sure the grass is cut, the hedge trimmed and the garage cleaned one last time. Then pack in the goods and stand by:

King Football is passing our way.

Mike Mayon Tops Card; Prices Cut

Fast-rising local favorite Miguel "Mike" Mayon, still glowing from an upset victory Thursday night over highly regarded Jimmy Robertson, will go to post again this Friday at the Coliseum when he tackles tough Vic Abraham in the 10 round feature event. Thursday's fight was a fund-raising society affair at Town and Country hotel.

Facing the likes of both Robertson, formerly the world's third ranked lightweight, and Abraham, a talented young stablemate of Jimmy Heair, would be too tough a task for most, particularly in only eight days. But Mayon, you see, is no ordinary fighter.

"Ever since I turned pro, my manager has put me in against some of the top names in the business," says Miguel, 22, a native of Sonora, Mexico. "To a lot of people, that might not seem like a very good idea. But then, how can you learn unless you fight the best?"

In a special semi-main scheduled for six rounds or less, San Diego High senior Manuel Lujan, who starts classes today, will take a break on Friday to battle ex-Marine Joey Johnson of San Francisco in a rematch. Johnson extended Lujan the full route last time out.

Mickey Davies, Coliseum matchmaker, said that admission prices would be reduced starting this week. Tickets, starting Friday, are $5 for ringside; $4 for reserved seats and $3 for general admission. All seats are close. The Coliseum seats only 3,330.

Last Week

Renato Garcia, world's 10th ranking middleweight, with all the grace and power he'll need to reach title level, scored an easy KO victory over Jimmy Caffey, a Youngstown veteran, Friday night.

Garcia, a Chilean, now has a professional record of 28-2. His 28th victory came on Friday the 13th, his 13th straight victory in San Diego, which for some, is a sign of good luck. Both men weighed in at 159 pounds but it was Garcia all the way. About two minutes into the third round Garcia motioned referee Bobby Valdez to stop the fight. He had Caffey helpless against the ropes and feared that he would seriously injure his opponent. Seconds later, Valdez did. Caffey bleeding from face cuts and with both eyes puffed, didn't object. The time: 2:50 of the third round of a fight scheduled for 10.

It was a short evening Friday. Only one bout went to term. All the rest ended abruptly in knockouts. In a middleweight scrap scheduled for five, Gerald Robinson of San Diego decked Russ Jullander at 41 seconds into the second round. He slept through the count.

Middleweights Rocky Heverly of San Diego and Randy Miller of Ventura, provided see-saw excitement. Miller dropped Heverly in the second round of their five-round bout but he recovered to knock out Miller at 3:07 of the third round. In California, the count goes on even though the round is over.

At that point the first three fights had been productive of only five full rounds of slugging whereas 20 had been carded.

Only the six-round finale went the full distance.

Hunters, Fishers Have Their Day

Hunting and Fishing Day is Saturday, September 28.

That's the day hunters and fisherpersons give themselves a pat on the back for "their contribution and outdoor recreation."

To make it official, Governor Ronald Reagan declared the day honoring outdoorspersons in a proclamation he signed last week.

"It is proper that recognition be given hunters and fishermen for their contribution to the conservation, wise use and protection of our fish, wildlife and natural resources. Programs to improve the status of game and non-game wildlife and to protect rare and endangered species are almost entirely funded through the sales of fishing and hunting license, tags and stamps," Governor Reagan said.

Hunting and fishing license sales in California provided the state's fish and game department with more than $18,746,511 for conservation in 1973. The 2,840,509 licensed hunters and fishermen in California in 1973 entitled the state to $2,862,995 in Federal Wildlife Restoration Funds. Sportsmen pay excise taxes on their fishing tackle, sporting arms and ammunition for this very purpose.

Now in its third year, the National Hunting and Fishing Day observance has grown into this nation's newest sporting tradition. Over 14 million people participated in over 3,000 separate programs in all 50 states in 1973. This year's participation on Sept. 28 is expected to top 20 million, with programs scheduled for gun clubs, shopping centers, parks and similar locations across the land.

Champ's Hall Names Four

Sandra Keshka, Gerry Driscoll, Walter Redondo, and Victor Regalado, whose exceptional sports achievements during August added lustre to San Diego's reputation as a producer of great athletes, have been named Stars of the Month by the Awards Committee of the Hall of Champions.

Miss Keshka, 19-year-old Chula Vistan, attracted worldwide notice when she swam the 21-mile English Channel in 10 hours, 30 minutes, narrowly missing a new record only because of adverse weather conditions.

Driscoll was honored for skippering the West Coast's Intrepid in the America Cup trials. After a spectacular series, he finally dropped a 5-4 decision to the New York Yacht Club's Courageous, and the latter was chosen to defend for the U. S. against Australia's Southern Cross.

Young Regalado, a resident of Tijuana but long associated with San Diego golf, scored his first major American pro tour victory in the $200,000 Pleasant Valley Classic in Massachusetts, while National City's Redondo captured the 1974 USLTA National Boys 16 and under tennis crown at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

All four individuals will receive San Diego Hall of Champions Breitbard Athletic Awards in recognition of their accomplishments.

Mariners Get Ron Plumb On Cincinnati Loan Plan

Ron Plumb, a solid defenseman who should be a valuable addition in the upcoming season, has been acquired on a one-year loan by the WHA San Diego Mariners.

The loan arrangement was made with the Cincinnati Stingers who have been granted a WHA franchise for the 1975-76 season.

Cincinnati, which will not field a team this year, had obtained Plumb less than three weeks ago in a trade with the WHA Vancouver Blazers for "future considerations."

"If Plumb does the job we think he can, we'd be interested in purchasing him," said Mariner director of player personnel Ron Ingram.

Plumb was loaned to San Diego because of the extensive defensive hockey experience of Ingram and Mariner coach Harry Howell, according to Cincinnati player personnel director Jerry Rafter.

The 24-year-old Plumb scored six goals with 32 assists last year for Vancouver and acquired 40 penalty minutes in 75 games. He had 10 goals and 41 assists with 66 penalty minutes in 78 games for the WHA Philadelphia Blazers in 1972-73.

Plumb began his hockey play with three seasons for Peterborough in the Ontario Hockey Association from 1967-70. He had 23 goals with 58 assists during that span and was named the OHA defenseman of the year in 1970.

He was picked in the first round of the 1970 amateur draft by the National Hockey League Boston Bruins and played two seasons for their Oklahoma City farm club in the Central Hockey League. After making the CHL all-star team in 1972, he was taken in the WHA player draft by Miami.

Legislature OK's License Fee Bill

Legislation increasing sport fishing and hunting license fees and fees for commercial fishing licenses, partyboat licenses and commercial fish processing is awaiting the signature of Gov. Ronald Reagan to become law.

The bill, SB 1650 by State Sen. Dennis E. Carpenter of Orange County, will provide about $5 million annually in funds to close the gap between current revenues and expenditures of the Department of Fish and Game and provide for future increases in DFG costs.

At the same time, the bill relaxes qualifications that will make thousands more of the state's elderly poor eligible for free fishing licenses and stamps.

DFG Director Ray Arnett, on behalf of the department and "everyone who cares about preserving wildlife," said he was extremely grateful to legislators, sportsmen, commercial interests and conservationists generally for their support in getting the legislation through.

"Last January when we announced that we were being forced to seek increased fees," Arnett said, "we called on interested persons to decide whether the continuing fight to preserve and improve California's fish and wildlife resources in the face of rapidly increasing costs was worth the additional burden.

"It was a tough question, but I was confident even then that all Californians would join us in the department in choosing the path of conservation in that critical moment for the state's fish and wildlife resources."

The department relies on sportsmen's dollars and commercial fishing fees for all of its operating funds. Sportsmen's funds include fishing and hunting license fees and federal excise taxes on fishing equipment and sporting arms and ammunition.

The new schedule of fees going into effect next year will raise the basic hunting license fee from $6 to $10, the trout stamp fee from $2 to $3 and the inland fishing stamp fee from $1 to $2. The $2 pheasant stamp will be eliminated. Other hunting and fishing fees will remain unchanged.

Free sport fishing licenses and stamps will be made available to persons 62 years old and older, residents of the state for five years or more, whose total monthly income is less than $250 if single and $500 combined if married. The old income limits are $140 and $280 monthly, respectively.

Whitworth's Chances of Playing In Golf Classic Increase

SAN DIEGO — Chances of Kathy Whitworth playing in the Cubic Corporation Ladies Professional Golf Association Classic here at Stardust Country Club October 18-20 increased greatly last week as "The Jack Nicklaus of Women's Golf" climbed into fifth place on the 1974 money won list.

Winner of most official money eight out of the last nine years (Carol Mann led in earnings for 1969), Whitworth has been lagging behind Joanne Carner, Jane Blalock, Jo Ann Prentice, Sandra Haynie and Carol Mann for most of this year.

She started her move last weekend, however, taking second in the Dallas Ladies Civitan Open to move past Mann with a total of $48,807.12. This puts Whitworth less than $30,000 behind the leader, Carner, as the ladies zero in on the final tournaments of the year.

Wins at such events at the $35,000 Cubic Charity Classic will be necessary if Whitworth is to continue her remarkable dominance of women's golf.

Last year Whitworth won $82,864.25 in 31 events. Carner has already netted $78,019 in just 22 events, having won the Dallas tourney.

Blalock, who like Carner is a definite entry here, is second in current earnings with $68,782.75 followed by Prentice with $63,180.49 and Haynie with $63,109.59. The latter has also signified her intention of playing here.

Sportswriters Give To Emil Karas Fund

Sportscasters / Sportswriters Assn., with membership exclusively comprised of working members of the sports press, made a contribution to the Emil Karas Fund which is being organized by San Diego sport fans.

Karas was a popular Charger linebacker in the 1960-1964 and the 1966 seasons. This year he became associated with the Chargers again as special promotions director. Before he could "dig in", it was discovered he had cancer. He is now undergoing intensive therapy.

Contributions may be mailed to Emil Karas Fund, P.O. Box 20666, San Diego 92120.

S/S/A urges all sports fans to make a contribution to the worthwhile fund.

Fewer Cows

America has about 11.2 million milk cows on farms, as of May, 1974, down about 2½% from a year earlier.

LEMON GROVE SPEEDSTER — Never far from the winner's circle, and always a high-placer Lemon Grove's Bill Silverthorn will try his luck at Mickey Thompson's "AC-Delco World Campionship" of off-road racing at Riverside, Sept. 28-29.

Lemon Grove Racers Are Favored In Riverside $50,000

Lemon Grove has a famed off-road racer that's right at home out in the rugged deserts of Baja, and at home on either a motorcycle or in a car; 32-year old Bill Silverthorn.

At the upcoming Mickey Thompson "AC-Delco World Championships" of off-road racing to be held at Riverside International Raceway, Silverthorn, who lives at 3025 Fisher lane will be competing for a share of $50,000 in prize money in both a car and a 'cycle. The spectacular event, an extravagant 2-day affair, will course over a 3.8 mile trail being laid out by the promoter and speed-king Thompson.

His 4-wheel mount will be a Chenwoth Wedge and his motorcycle, a 250 Husqarvarna.

How will Silverthorn do? His record may give a hint; he's been in all the Las Vegas-based Mint 400 races, all the Baja races for 5 years, and ever SCORE off-road event, the name of Thompson's sanctioning body. Out of all these bone-jarring, high speed events he's brought home . . . 2nd in the '72 Mint race, 1st in class in Baja in '70 and in '72, 1st in the '71 Mexican 1000 race, 2nd in Baja 500 for '73, and 1st in class in Thompson's Riverside '73 RV event.

Silverthorn's wife Debbie is not only his best fan, she preruns the courses with him. The speed merchant is associated with Honda Lemon Grove and co-sponsors himself together with Dick Leschien operator of the Honda firm.

Another Lemon Grove racer, Johnny Johnson who attracted attention when he won the Baja 1000 in 1973, will have two cars in the Riverside Race.

One is a Baja Bug, the same one that was driven to first place in the recent Ensenada 300. The single-seat racer is powered by a Chevy engine — the only V8 in the race. Johnson is sponsored by Culbert Automotive Engineering of Lemon Grove.

The rapidly approaching Thompson SCORE races will be held September 28-29. Full spectator facilities are being prepared with grandstand seating, safety fencing, concession stands, water and overnight camping sites are free with 2-day tickets. Ticket information to this unique form of motor sports is available at Riverside Raceway and through all Ticketron outlets.

Lake Jennings Trout Season To be Promising

Trout season at Lake Jennings will open November 2 with basically the same rates and rules as last season, the Helix Water District board of directors has decided.

An order for 60,000 lbs. of trout has been placed with Calaveras Trout Farm in northern California. After an initial plant of 3500 lbs., weekly plantings will average 1500 lbs., with 75 percent of the fish to be one-half pounders and 25 percent to average one pound or more.

The season will close July 7. The lake will be open from 5:30 a.m. to dusk on Saturdays, Sundays, Mondays and holidays other than Christmas.

The fee schedule, at least until January, will be $2.50 per day for adults and $1 for children under 16. There will be no charge for children under 8, but they must be accompanied by a fee-paying adult and their catch included with the adult catch.

Couple Returns From Bulgaria Dance 'Olympics'

Award winning ballerina Marlene Jones, San Diego, of the California Ballet Company, and her partner, Douglas Hevenor, from Oakland, have returned from the International Ballet Competition in Varna, Bulgaria, where they danced as part of a highly successful team of Americans in the renowned dance equivalent of the Olympics.

Accompanying the dancers was Maxine Mahon, Artistic Director of the California Ballet Company and G. Browning Smith, an officer of the Board of Directors of the California Ballet Association.

Two of only seven dancers invited to compete for the United States and the only dancers ever invited from California, Miss Jones and Mr. Hevenor quickly became favorites of the large, knowledgeable audiences. They performed in all three stages of the demanding competition; their original modern work "Adagio" (music by Albinoni) by American Charles Bennett won second place for choreography. They were invited to repeat the work in a Gala Performance with other award winners. The Gala Performance was televised throughout Europe and the Soviet Union.

In addition, Miss Jones passed the finals of the three-week competition and was individually selected (partnered by Mr. Hevenor) for a special Award for Merit. She returned with a Diploma, a beautiful scroll, and a cash award.

Karen Susman Signs For S.D. Court Play

San Diego's own Karen Hantze Susman, former world's singles and doubles champion, will be an entry in the first annual $20,000 San Diego Tennis Classic's Open Division at Vacation Village on Nov. 6-10, tourney officials announced.

The Classic, benefitting youth programs of the Diabetes Association of Southern California, will begin on Nov. 1-3 with numerous other divisions of play at several tennis centers.

Mrs. Susman, who recently completed a season with the L.A. Strings in nationwide professional team tennis competition, won women's singles at Wimbledon in 1962. In 1961 and 1962 she teamed with Billie Jean Moffitt (later King) to capture Wimbledon doubles, also symbolic of the world's championship. They also won the U. S. doubles in 1964.

She won national titles in girls 18-and-under singles in 1957-59-60 and in girls 15-and-under singles in 1955-56-57. Nobody had ever won the two singles events in the same year.

In Wightman Cup play against England, Mrs. Susman competed in 1960-61-62-65, winning six matches and losing three and remaining undefeated in doubles.

She was ranked sixth nationally in 1959, second from 1960 through 1962 and fourth in 1964. Despite a career interrupted by motherhood and a long retirement from tournament play, she is still considered one of the nation's top players in doubles which she will compete in at the San Diego Tennis Classic.

Sponsors are Bullocks and Home Federal.

During the Civil War Poet Walt Whitman served as a war correspondent.

Lowly Padres May Change Outcome of Pennant Race

The Padres will finish out the 1974 season in the next two weeks by playing all remaining 11 games with their California rivals, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The Padres will be after their first wins of the season over the Los Angeles Dodgers when they meet in Smog City for four games starting tonight through Sunday. The Dodgers are still locked in a fight for the National League Western Division pennant so it goes without saying how important the games are for the LA crew.

San Diego will take a break Monday before swinging into their final homestand of the season against the Giants Tuesday and Wednesday and then the Dodgers Sept. 26-28.

The curtain will fall on the season in San Francisco Oct. 1-2 with a pair against the Giants.

"The way things are shaping up at the moment, our seven games with the Dodgers (all within the space of 10 days) could well be their most important seven games of the entire season," said Padre manager John McNamara.

"It looks like the pennant race will go right down to the very end between the Dodgers and the Reds so we'll be having a say in who wins that Western Division title. The Dodgers may have dominated us up to now, but we've got a little too much pride to roll over and play dead so they can walk off with the pennant."

As expected, the Padres have been getting a good look at the young players called up following the end of the minor league season and McNamara has pretty much liked what he's seen so far.

"Our young kids have shown a lot of hustle and enthusiasm. They are reacting exactly as we had hoped and are now beginning to get their feet firmly on the ground and shaking off those initial 'awe-struck' feelings of coming up to the majors," the Padres first-year boss said.

The Padres main special event during the early stages of the final homestand will be Unused Ticket Night on Wednesday, Sept. 25. All unused tickets, including those for members of the 7-Up Junior Padres and Central Federal Senior Padre Clubs, can be exchanged for a comparably priced seat.

$2,500 Prize

The National Baseball League was founded in New York on February 2, 1876. It celebrates its 100th anniversary in 1976, which is concurrent with the Bicentennial of the United States.

The league is seeking a special logo to be used for all its teams during the centennial season.

A $2,500 prize will be awarded to the person who designs the logo accepted by the league.

All artists, both amateur and professional, are eligible to enter the contest through the San Diego Padres. All entries become the property of the National League for use by the league as it sees fit.

The deadline for all entries will be December 1. The Padres will then select the best five for submission to the National League's Centennial Committee for consideration. The winner will be selected no later than February 1, 1975.

Fans may enter the contest by writing to: Logo Contest, Public Relations Department, San Diego Padres, P.O. Box 2000, San Diego, California 92120.

Cajon Speedway Racing Leadership Up For Grabs

Cajon Speedway will be packed with excitement Saturday night as the super stock car pilots roar into their next to last race of a tough campaign.

The tight battle for the El Cajon Stock Car Racing Assn. championship between Ron Overman and Gary Crossland has had fans on the edge of their seats for the past few weeks.

Then, there is the belated charge of veteran Jim Hitt of Lemon Grove, who has won six features and is working on a win streak of three. The 37-year old driver, who won a title in 1971, has moved within range of another crown, trailing Overman by only 220 points now.

Add to this a gigantic destruction derby and an old-timers race and you can see that race fans will want to be on hand for this one.

The night starts with qualifications for some 60 cars at 6:30 p.m. A four-lap trophy dash for the four-fastest machines will begin at 8 p.m.

Four eight-lap heats, a 10 lap B-semi, and a 15 lap A-semi also will be on the program.

Overman leads Crossland by nine points, 2450 to 2441. Hitt is next with 2230 while Mark Stahl, who failed to qualify for last week's show, is in fourth place with 2011 points.

It won't be easy for the front-runners though. Bobby Roland, bidding for rookie of the year honors, led for 22 laps last week, defending champion Pat McIntyre is getting a strong performance from his Nova again and Tom Zelesky has become one of the top qualifiers.

After the regular program, some 20 tired-looking cars will maneuver around the infield in the final destruction derby of the season, a real bash.

Although the regular season will close Sept. 28, an Open Competition show is scheduled for Oct. 5 at the popular ⅜th of a mile, banked asphalt oval.

In this one, several of the southland's leading performers will be meeting the local favorites.

USIU Opens Grid Schedule Saturday

With the opening game of the season just days away, Coach Don Turner is still trying to determine who will start at quarterback on Saturday when United States International University opens the 1974 football season against Redlands.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. in Balboa Stadium.

Although the Westerners dominated a three-way scrimmage last Saturday with Occidental College and Mira Costa JC, the quarterback situation became more complicated.

Greg Briner, junior from Gardena who appeared to have won the job, was injured in the workout and saw little action and is a doubtful participant this week.

That leaves Dennis Simpson, sophomore transfer from Minnesota, Morris and Joe Machado, the vasity signal-caller last year. Both Simpson and Machado looked good in last week's workout with Simpson guiding the Westerners to a pair of touchdowns and Machado at the helm for one. Machado looked particularly sharp passing and connected on five of six aerials during a 69-yard touchdown drive.

RETAIL TRENDS

IF IT'S DIRTY, IT'S A PROPECT: A new company in San Diego called Sparkle Wash is finding just about anybody with something dirty is a prospective customer. Sparkle Wash of San Diego at 4534 Park Blvd. run by Mel Lindheim and Sam Graves is one of seventy outlets in a national chain, but the first one in California. Their specially equipped $14,000 van has everything needed to wash mobile homes, degrease machinery, restore brick on office buildings, clean planes, boats, tombstones, awnings, storefronts, and the engines of truck fleets. In residential areas the equipment removes dirt, grime and oxidation from homes and can save homeowners from having to repaint their homes. Mel states, "It would cost $700 to $1,000 to paint the average home. We can apply our detergents and hoses and have it cleaned in a few hours, for $50.00 to $200.00." They also can remove loose and flaky paint and an alternative to costly abrasives and polluting sandblasting. They can cut painting costs in half by preparing the exterior surfaces faster, better and for less money than any other method.

Each van contains water tanks, tanks of special detergents, hoses, pumps and a generator to provide electricity. The operator carries a small radio transmitter and changes detergent and rinse cycles by remote control from where he's working.

Deddeh's Bill Cut Property Pre-Pay Penalty

Legislation by Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh (D-Chula Vista) outlawing prepayment penalties on real property loans of less than $100,000, has passed both houses of the State Legislature and is awaiting action by the Governor.

Assembly Bill 200, which Deddeh guided through the recently adjourned legislative session, would apply to new home loans made after January 1, 1975, the effective date of the bill.

"This is a major piece of consumer-oriented legislation which could save home buyers well in excess of $1000 on the occasion of the resale of their home" Deddeh said.

"For those people who resell their home before the original period of the loan expires or who are able to pay off their loan early this legislation could be a real money saver," Deddeh continued.

The bill was supported by the California Real Estate Associtaion and several prominent South Bay realtors according to Deddeh's office.

Law Changed for School Seniors

Senator John Stull (R-38th District) announced that Governor Ronald Reagan has signed into law his Senate Bill 1856, which will allow high school seniors to take only those classes necessary for graduation during their final semester or quarter.

"Under present law," Stull said, "all high school students are required to attend school a minimum of 240 minutes per day and be enrolled in physical education or driver education each semester or quarter.

"However, as pointed out to me earlier this year by former Carlsbad School District Superintendent Howard Harmon, there are high school seniors who need to attend fewer than 240 minutes a day during their final semester or quarter in order to fulfill their graduation requirements. The law, suggested Harmon, should be flexible enough to deal with these situations, so that graduating seniors would not be required to attend extraneous classes or sit in "study hall." This time in many cases could be better used by these young people looking for work, actually beginning work, or gaining job training experience."

After looking into the matter, Stull agreed, and introduced Senate Bill 1856. The bill allows school districts to grant a written request made by either the senior's parent or guardian, or by the senior himself if over 18 years of age, that he be allowed to attend school for fewer than 240 minutes per day during his final semester or quarter. And, if such provision is made, the student may also be exempted from physical education during this final portion of his public school career.

"One fundamental purpose of our public schools is to equip our young people with basic job skills," Stull concluded.

At the hearing, said Commission will hear any interested parties who request to appear and be heard, and will hear and consider the report of the Commission's staff.

The boundaries of the proposed service area include approximately 0.17 miles. The proposed service area is located east of Bancroft Drive and south of Troy Street in the Spring Valley Area of the County of San Diego, State of California.

Letter to the Editor

Assessor Squawks

Dear Editor:

Your reporting of the County budget "County Property Taxes trimmed by 2 cents," on August 30 doesn't quite give a responsible picture. You do not detail what is involved in the 10% increase in the budget. Wouldn't this be pertinent data for the information of the taxpayer?

You say the tax rate is lower, but due to assessment increases, some will have increased taxes. True—but not proper.

The budget is the catalyst, the common denominator of taxes, not rates or assessments. Had the budget been held this year to the same dollar volume as last, the majority of those receiving assessment increases would have some tax relief due to the increase in value from new developments and construction.

Soon now, someone in the news media is going to recognize there is a responsibility to report the budget, to identify those services which have increased in cost, to identify those new services that have been added, etc.

From the complaints I hear, the taxpaying public is aware of the "Tax Rate Charade" and doesn't like it.

Very truly yours,
E. C. Williams
County Assessor
San Diego County

Dear Assessor:

The taxpayer is interested in one thing. His tax bite.

We told them his assessed value rose. We told them the county budget was up. We told them the tax rate was down slightly.

At budget time we tell them of the ever-rising cost of government. At tax-rate time we inform them of the change in tax rate.

The assessor's office has long been the pidgeon for a free-spending board of supervisors. You knew it when you got the job as assessor and you know it now. Your job is to assess property with all the ability and honesty you possess. If you do this, the revolt, when it comes, will be against the spenders—not the assessor. So quit weaseling and go to work.

The Editor

Marijuana View

Dear Editor:

Read your editorial on 'Marijuana and Children' and I am in agreement with every word you said.

I only wish that this editorial could be on the front page of every newspaper in the United States. Since we both know that's not possible, I'll settle for the name of the Judge so that I can send him a copy. He is the one who needs to know how the public really feels about his Judgment.

Thank you, and keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Anti-Incorporation

Dear Editor:

Here are some reasons we should not annex to any city or incorporate.

We have everything we need here, in our own delightful town.

Good police protection, wonderful medical centers with plenty of fine doctors, great county roads and banks galore, busy shopping centers, low taxes and grand schools, a wonderful library tho' it needs more space.

Lemon Grove Woman's Club, Senior Citizens Group, Kiwanis, Chamber of Commerce, Business Woman's Club, etc. Planning commission, a great newspaper run by a very intelligent editor, drug stores, supermarkets, bus service and churches.

What we don't have that both La Mesa and San Diego do have are higher taxes, bandit parking machines in La Mesa, which is now a ghost town since Grossmont Center. Politically, La Mesa is having trouble and we have none.

Lets be happy and stay as we are — lets keep the status quo.

Sincerely,
Marie Howell

Albritten Squawks About Chacon's 'Living Standard'

Jesse L. Albritten, candidate 79th Assembly District, said he is requesting William Simon, Secretary of Treasury to conduct a personal investigation of Assemblyman Peter R. Chacon Income Tax Returns for the taxable years 1970, 1971, 1972 and 1973. Albritten wants Chacon to explain to him how he can afford his "extravagant" standard of living on the pay of an Assemblyman.

Albritten says he was required to file Form 716 (Statement of Assets and Income) at the time of filing his nomination papers.

In 1973 the California Legislature enacted the Government Conflict of Interest Act Requiring State and Local Officials to disclose personal assets and income. Chacon voted in favor of this legislation. Chacon to date hasn't complied with the requirements of the Act, Albritten charges.

Albritten wanted to enter into a "Dirty Tricks Preventive Agreement" with Chacon. He said Chacon refused.

Albritten wants assurance that his office will not be bombed again. He said Chacon refused to give assurance.

Albritten said he sent Chacon a registered letter on Aug. 3, requesting the above agreement, and got no answer. He says he feels the Assemblyman should answer all letters from citizens of the 79th Assembly District.

New Tribes Forming

'Indians' to Pow Wow at Sea World

The 350 San Diego County Y Indian Tribes with over 7,000 members will "pow wow" at Sea World, Sunday according to Myron Lewis general director of the San Diego City and County YMCA. "They will set up a teepee village, display their handicrafts and exhibits, and give visitors official Indian headbands."

The Sea World "pow wow" is part of National Y Indian Week and marks the beginning of a Y Indian membership drive.

"We have several different Indian programs designed to bring parents and children closer together," states Lewis. "The groups are designed for boys and girls ages 6 through 8 and their parents."

The Y Indian and Afro Guides bring fathers and sons together. Mothers and daughters are members of Y Indian Maidens, while fathers and daughters join Y Indian Princess tribes. Fatherless boys meet with high school and college age students in their "Little Brave" program.

The tribes of 10 to 15 members meet for an hour twice a month in different homes. They play games, fly kites, go on hikes and campouts and study Indian lore together.

"It's a great program to strengthen family life," states Lewis, "and the Y Indian Guides motto 'Pals Forever' says it all."

New tribes are forming now. Contact John A. Davis YMCA, 8881 Dallas st., La Mesa 92041.

Phone 466-4161, to see how you can participate in this family adventure. Discount coupons to Sea World are available at the YMCA.

Free Influenza Shots Available For Senior Citizens, Diseased

A mass influenza immunization program will be held throughout October for county residents 65 or older and those under 65 who suffer from a chronic disease. The announcement was made in a joint statement released by the San Diego County Medical Society, the San Diego County Office of Senior Citizens Affairs and the County of San Diego Department of Public Health.

Dr. J. B. Askew, director of public health, said that the influenza vaccine will be available without charge to eligible persons at over fifty clinic locations during October.

"This program has been made possible by the Thurman Act which the State legislature passed earlier this year," Dr. Askew note. "Under provisions of the Act, San Diego County will receive 51,200 doses of flu vaccine for persons 65 or older. Another 5,000 doses for senior citizens are being purchased out of county funds."

"The Board of Supervisors has voted to purchase an additional 6,500 doses of vaccine out of county funds for persons under 65 who suffer from a chronic disease. Chronic diseases include those of the heart, lungs, bronchial tubes, kidneys and metabolic origin, such as diabetes."

Dr. Askew pointed out that it was very important for people in both groups to be protected.

"While young healthy persons will usually recover from a bout with the flu, people in these groups often have difficulty fighting influenza and its complications," Dr. Askew commented. "In 1973, 51 county residents, most of whom were senior citizens or suffered from a chronic disease, died from influenza-related illnesses."

Local residents wishing to be immunized may go to the Lemon Grove Community Center, 3146 School lane, Oct. 18 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Entry Forms For Diabetes Bike-A-Thon

Entry forms for the Diabetes Bike-A-Thon are now available at all McDonald's Restaurants, Dr. Barry Gruer, chairman of the local event, has announced.

Ten rides will be held in San Diego County, Sunday, October 6, as part of an All-Southern California ride sponsored by units and chapters of the American Diabetes Association, and co-sponsored by McDonald's.

Gruer said the San Diego Chapter hopes to raise more than $50,000 for research, education and services for diabetics, and summer camp for diabetic children.

Funds are raised by riders who sign sponsors at a minimum of five cents a mile for the bike routes. The restaurants serve as check points, and offer free soft drinks to entrants and free food to those who complete the routes.

"Funds from the ride will go a long way toward furthering the progress that is being made toward better control of this chronic disease and very promising research toward a possible cure," Dr. Gruer said.

Questions may be answered by calling the Diabetes Association, 232-7573.
